the hydrocarbons sector creates about 55 of Qatar’s GDP, 90 of government revenues (oil and gas taxes and royalties, plus dividends from Qatar Petroleum), and 85 of exports.

such as a drug rehab where they will not have access to drugs and can partake in activities and treatment.

the government’s use of electronic and neurological attacks on its own people will almost certainly lead to homegrown terrorists.